Land Only Program / Airfare Not Included

AN INVITATION TO JOIN US

Connie & Joe Micatrotto

Dear Fellow Pilgrims...

We are often raised by the words..."follow in the footsteps of our Lord." Well, St. Paul saw those footsteps as BOTH physical and spiritual. We are leading a Pilgrimage where the names Athens-Phillipi-Delphi-Ephesus-Rhodes-Corinth-Thessaloniki-Patmos and more, will allow you to make your own footsteps in the physical and spiritual Pilgrimage to a land and area that is the most pivotal in the early growth of our Church.

When we read of the role that Ancient Greece and today's Turkey, played in our salvation history, we are brought to our knees in the weight of these blessings. But, this Pilgrimage will also allow you to walk, taste, smell and experience one of the greatest of all ancient civilizations...GREECE.

As you review the itinerary you will travel through hundreds of centuries of history that molded the modern world in nearly every feasible category. Having traveled much of this world we can declare that few areas on this planet can match the natural beauty, spectacular archeology and significant historical edifices infused with the first aspects of the early Church, as it moved beyond the boundaries of Israel. Greece allowed St. Paul to bring the Gentile world to the Lord by his lips and the strength of his indomitable will.

We will also sail aboard a beautiful ship to visit restored ancient cities, including Ephesus, where St. Paul spent over 2 years teaching the people about Jesus the Christ. We can state unequivocally that the entire trip is worth just seeing and experiencing this city of immense Biblical history. In this hallowed place you will lay your eyes upon Mother Mary's last earthly home, just around the area of where St. John is believed to be buried. The islands of Patmos, Crete and Santorini, amongst others, await your gaze.

We will enjoy the Greek culture and cuisine as the Acts of the Apostles and letters from St. Paul are seen in HD (High Definition) in our minds and hearts. We are blest to have our own Missions of St. Paul, Pastor and Priest, Fr. Camillus Ogaraku, MSP...who will bring his expertise of St. Paul to us in ways we never imagined. And our Pilgrimage Veteran, Deacon James Carabajal, KCHS, makes all we see and experience a spiritual joy.

Finally, the words "trip of a lifetime" are often used but seldom achieved...this Pilgrimage, along with your Spiritual energy, will meet and exceed each word of that phrase....

In His Love, Care, Service and Joy
Sir Joe & Dame Connie Micatrotto

OUR DAILY ITINERARY

DAY 1, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2: DEPART THE USA

Our travel package is being offered as a "Land Only" package, meaning that all of us will be making our own airline arrangements.

DAY 2, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3: ARRIVE ATHENS

Upon arrival in Athens, you will need to take a taxi from the airport to our hotel in Athens. Dinner is served at our hotel. (D)

If you arrive at the hotel before the usual 3:00pm check-in time, you are welcome to deposit your luggage at the bell stand.

Those parties wishing to arrive a day earlier in Athens will need to book their own reservation for this pre-night at Royal Olympic Hotel. In order to avoid having to change your room, please make your pre-night reservation in the same category of rooms as our group reservation: Executive Rooms.

DAY 3, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4: ATHENS: VISIT PARTHENON & PLAKA

After breakfast at our hotel, we transfer to the Cathedral of St. Denis where we celebrate Mass. After Mass, we enjoy a tour of the city of Athens. We visit the famed Acropolis (the ancient citadel) located on a rocky outcrop above the city, and the Parthenon, Hadrian's Arch and the Temple of Zeus. We stand on Areopagus hill, from where Paul delivered his sermon, the most dramatic and fullest reported speech of his missionary career. From here we view the agora, where Paul addressed the Athenians. According to the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 17:16-34), while he was waiting for his companions Silas and Timothy to arrive, Paul was distressed to see Athens full of idols.

We continue to the famed Plaka neighborhood for our included lunch. We will have some free time in the Plaka for a visit and shopping. We transfer back to our hotel. Dinner is on our own tonight. (B, L)

DAY 4, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5: ATHENS / THESSALONIKI

This morning, after breakfast and checkout, we transfer to the airport for our morning flight to Thessaloniki. Upon arrival, we board our motor coach to transfer to the city.

At the time of Paul's arrival, Thessaloniki had a population of about 200,000 people and served as an important economic and political hub of the Roman Empire. About 50 AD, while on his second missionary journey, Paul spoke to the Jewish population from the city's chief synagogue on three Sabbaths and sowed the seeds for Thessaloniki's first Christian church. During Paul's time in the city, he convinced some people among both Jews and Greeks to adopt Christian beliefs, as well as some of the city's leading women. However, Jews who kept their faith banned Paul and his companions from their midst. Because they were no longer welcome, Paul, Silas and Timothy were eventually sent out of Thessaloniki. The men eventually continued their travels, and Paul wrote two letters to the new church at Thessaloniki, probably between 51AD and 53AD, the First Epistle to the Thessalonians and the Second Epistle to the Thessalonians.

We will have time for lunch on our own and to enjoy watching the life of the city at Aristotelous Square, viewing the Rotunda of Galerius, used as a church for over 1200 years, and the Arch of Galerius built in AD 298-299. Later this afternoon we celebrate Mass at the Holy Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. We check in to our hotel for dinner and the rest of the evening (B, D)

DAY 5, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6: THESSALONIKI: EXCURSION TO PHILIPPI AND KAVALA

After breakfast, we set out to Philippi, an ancient city built on the Via Egnatia, the Roman road between Rome and Byzantium (today's Istanbul). In Philippi, Paul preached on European soil for the first time, helping develop a vibrant church there. The New Testament records Paul's visits to the city during his second missionary journey (AD 49 or 50) and on two other occasions in the mid 50's. He later sent at least one letter to the community. Of all the churches Paul founded, probably none was so dear to him as the one in Philippi (Acts 16:9-33).

We celebrate Mass together near the river where St. Lydia is thought to have been baptized by Paul. The first person known to have been baptized in Europe, Lydia brought about the conversion of all her household and provided lodging and support for Paul and his co-missionaries (Acts 16:13-15).

We also visit the ruins of a prison where Paul and Silas were held (Acts 16:23-40), the Agora (with its Theater), and a 5th century Basilica. We continue on to the nearby port of Kavala (Neapolis in Acts 16:11) for a late lunch on the seaside. We return to our hotel in Thessaloniki for dinner on our own this evening. (B, L)

DAY 6, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7: THESSALONIKI: VISIT / KALAMBAKA

This morning we have breakfast and check out from our hotel. We visit the Greek Orthodox Church of Saint Demetrius, named for a 4th century Thessalonian Christian martyr. We see as well the Church of Hagia Sophia, modeled on the church of the same name in Constantinople, dating from the 8th century. It is one of the oldest standing churches in Thessaloniki and a UNESCO World Heritage site monument. We continue our journey for Kalambaka. Upon arrival, we check into our hotel in Kalambaka. Mass will be celebrated at a private room of our hotel before Dinner. (B, D)

DAY 7, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8: KALAMBAKA: VISIT OF THE METEORA MONASTERIES

Today we visit the breathtaking Greek Orthodox monasteries of Meteora. Derived from the Greek word meteorizome, meaning "to hang in the air," the structures seem to do just that. The complex of monasteries, built in the 13th and 14th centuries, still houses monks and is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site, home of superb icons, old manuscripts, and unique spiritual mosaics and frescoes. After our visit to two of the monasteries, we have time for lunch on our own and to explore the village. We bring the experiences of the day with us as we gather before dinner for Mass at our hotel. (B, D)

DAY 8, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9: KALAMBAKA / DELPHI (Oracle of Delphi) / ATHENS

This morning we celebrate Mass at our hotel, have breakfast and check out. We board our motor coach for Athens, stopping first at Delphi, one of the most important religious sanctuaries of the ancient Greek world, home to Apollo and the most famous oracle of antiquity. Its history dates to the Mycenaean period and in Homer's Iliad, the site was referred to as Pytho. The oracle or the Pythia as it was called was a woman over 50 who abandoned normal life and lived her life in seclusion to serve the many who came to have their questions answered. The Pythia would pronounce her prophesies while the priests wrote them down and translated them to the people. Among the most noted to come with questions were King Croesus and King Midas. After our visit, we gather for lunch at a local restaurant, then we continue on to our hotel in Athens for check-in. Dinner tonight is on our own. (B, L)

DAY 9, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10: ATHENS / PORT OF LAVRIO / MYKONOS

After breakfast and checkout, we transfer to the port of Lavrio, where we board our waiting ship. Lunch is served on board. Our cruise this afternoon will take us to the island of Mykonos. We celebrate our Mass today on the ship, remembering the journeys of Paul. Upon arrival in Mykonos, we are free to explore this picturesque island. Our dinner is aboard our ship. (B, L, D)

DAY 10, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11: CRUISE: EPHEBUS AND PATMOS

This morning we dock at Kusadasi, Turkey, where we board our motor coach for an included shore excursion to Ephesus. In ancient times, Ephesus was the capital of the Province of Asia [Minor], a very large city with a major harbor. Silt from the local rivers has placed today's shoreline more than four miles west of where it was in Roman times.

St. Paul lived in Ephesus around 53-56 AD. While here, he wrote letters to Galatia, Philippi, Corinth, and other early Christian churches. On our shore excursion, we visit the great theatre where St. Paul addressed the crowds (Acts 19:29) and the site of the riot from which Paul escaped. We also visit the ruins of an early 4th century Christian church with a baptistery and bishop's residence. Named the Church of the Virgin Mary, it was the site of the AD 431 Third Ecumenical Council, which named Mary "Theotokos", that is, "God-bearer" or "Mother of God."

Early Christian tradition identified John the Apostle with Ephesus. We visit the Basilica of St. John, built by Justinian in the 6th century, which houses the tomb of St. John. Christian tradition has also associated Ephesus with Mary, mother of Jesus, being cared for by John, "the disciple whom he loved" (John 19:26). We visit the peaceful House of Virgin Mary, believed to be her last residence, sacred to both Christians and Muslims. Here we celebrate Mass.

We return to our ship for lunch and continue our journey to Patmos, often called the Jerusalem of the Aegean. On our included shore excursion we visit the island's Monastery of St. John, dating from the 11th century, and the grotto where tradition says John wrote the Book of Revelation. Back on board our ship, dinner is served. (B, L, D)

DAY 11, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12: CRUISE: RHODES

We arrive in Rhodes this morning, with time to explore the island and its charm. The island sometimes referred to as the Island of the Knights of St. John, who built the medieval town, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Historically, Rhodes was famous worldwide for the Colossus of Rhodes, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. You are free to explore the island on your own or to purchase the optional shore excursion on board. Lunch and dinner are served on board. Mass is celebrated in a room on board. (B, L, D)

DAY 12, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13: CRUISE: SANTORINI

Today, we arrive to the port of Santorini, one of the most magical of the Greek Isles, affording stunning views. You are welcome to explore the island on your own or purchase an organized excursion on the ship from your tour manager. Lunch and dinner are on board. Mass is celebrated in a room on board. (B, L, D)

DAY 13, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14: DISEMBARK IN ATHENS: CORINTH EXCURSION

We arrive in port early this morning to find our motor coach waiting for us. From here, we travel to Corinth, the largest city in the land now known as Greece. Here Paul spent 18 months, preaching to the Jews and Gentiles. The site is overlooked by an Acropolis housing the remains of the Temple of Aphrodite, goddess of love. In Corinth, Paul worked with Aquila and Priscilla and his trial by Gallio took place in the agora. The community he founded here caused him much grief and prompted him to write at least four letters. We celebrate Mass outdoors. We gather at a local restaurant for our lunch. We return to Athens and check in to our hotel. Dinner is on our own. (B, L)

DAY 14, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15: RETURN TO THE USA

Today, after breakfast, our time together ends but our hearts will remain forever full of precious memories of our time together. Transfer to the airport on our own. (B)

Those parties wishing to stay longer in Athens will need to book their own reservation for their post-night(s) at the Royal Olympic Hotel .Please make your post-night reservation(s) in the same category of rooms as our group reservation: Executive Rooms.

Note: While no changes are anticipated, there may be unforeseen occasions when certain alterations become necessary to this itinerary, either due to changes in airline schedules or for other reasons. All Masses are subject to local church schedules and substitution with alternate Mass sites if churches mentioned are not available.

You understand and agree no claims will be considered and you will not bring suit against CTC unless you have first provided a typewritten notice of claim to CTC within 30 days after the trip or cancellation of the trip.

TERMS & CONDITIONS CHANGES: Changes in any of the Terms & Conditions can be made only in writing signed by an officer of CTC.

FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS ONLY: Upon cancellation of the transportation or travel services, where the passenger is not at fault and has not canceled in violation of any terms and conditions previously clearly and conspicuously disclosed and agreed to by the passenger, all sums paid to CTC for services not provided will be promptly paid to the passenger, unless the passenger advises the CTC in writing, after cancellation. This provision does not apply where CTC has remitted the payment to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier, without obtaining a refund, and where the wholesaler or provider defaults in providing the agreed-upon transportation or service. In this situation, CTC must provide the passenger with a written statement accompanied by bank records establishing the disbursement of the payment, and if disbursed to a wholesale seller of travel, proof of current registration of that wholesaler.
