AN INVITATION TO JOIN US

Dear Friends in Christ,

We invite you to join our Pilgrimage to Greece in May 2027 as we trace the steps of the Apostles during the second chapter in the history of the Christian Church. We are very excited to make this pilgrimage with you as we venture into new territory and explore Greece and its islands.

Many ancient places, cities, and cathedrals we read about in the Bible, especially in the Acts of the Apostles, will become real to us as we visit and follow in the footsteps of St. Paul. We will trace the places where he wrote most of the New Testament epistles. We will visit the House of Mary, mother of Jesus, in Ephesus, where she lived with St. John. We will have time to see superb icons, ancient manuscripts, and unique mosaics and frescoes during our travels.

Our professional tour guides will help us learn more about the Saints and others who experienced conversion amid the persecution of Christians. Our pilgrimage will offer wonderful meals, a comfortable bus, excellent hotels, and a cruise. You will have time to explore some of the towns on your own, and yes, there will be time for shopping. We will have Mass every day during our pilgrimage. We will have "Faith Sharing," which will bring a true sense of camaraderie to all pilgrims.

This is a special opportunity for St. John Vianney Parish and others who will join us on our pilgrimage to Greece. We hope you can journey with us on our Greece Pilgrimage.

In the peace of Christ,

Father Ignatius Mazanowski

OUR DAILY ITINERARY

DAY 1, MONDAY, MAY 3: DEPART THE USA

Depart Phoenix enroute to Athens with complimentary meals and beverages served on our international flight

DAY 2, TUESDAY, MAY 4: ARRIVE ATHENS

Upon arrival in Athens, we meet our Catholic Travel Centre tour representative and transfer to our hotel. Dinner is served at our hotel (D)

DAY 3, WEDNESDAY, MAY 5: ATHENS: VISIT PARTHENON & PLAKA

After breakfast at our hotel, we transfer to the Cathedral of St. Denis where we celebrate Mass. After Mass, we enjoy a tour of the city of Athens. We visit the famed Acropolis (the ancient citadel) located on a rocky outcrop above the city, and the Parthenon, Hadrian's Arch and the Temple of Zeus. We stand on Areopagus hill, from where Paul delivered his sermon, the most dramatic and fullest reported speech of his missionary career. From here we view the agora, where Paul addressed the Athenians. According to the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 17:16-34), while he was waiting for his companions Silas and Timothy to arrive, Paul was distressed to see Athens full of idols. We continue to the famed Plaka neighborhood. We will have some free time in the Plaka for lunch on our own, visit and shopping. Later this afternoon we return to our hotel. We have Faith Sharing at a private meeting room of our hotel before dinner. Dinner is included at our hotel. (B, D)

DAY 4, THURSDAY, MAY 6: ATHENS / THESSALONIKI

This morning we checkout from our hotel and transfer to Athens airport for our flight to Thessaloniki. Upon arrival, we board our motor coach to transfer to the city.

At the time of Paul's arrival, Thessaloniki had a population of about 200,000 people and served as an important economic and political hub of the Roman Empire. About 50 AD, while on his second missionary journey, Paul spoke to the Jewish population from the city's chief synagogue on three Sabbaths and sowed the seeds for Thessaloniki's first Christian church. During Paul's time in the city, he convinced some people among both Jews and Greeks to adopt Christian beliefs, as well as some of the city's leading women. However, Jews who kept their faith banned Paul and his companions from their midst. Because they were no longer welcome, Paul, Silas and Timothy were eventually sent out of Thessaloniki. The men eventually continued their travels, and Paul wrote two letters to the new church at Thessaloniki, probably between 51AD and 53AD, the First Epistle to the Thessalonians and the Second Epistle to the Thessalonians.

We will have time for lunch on our own and to enjoy watching the life of the city at Aristotelous Square, viewing the Rotunda of Galerius, used as a church for over 1200 years, and the Arch of Galerius built in AD 298-299. Later this afternoon we celebrate Mass at the Holy Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. We check in to our hotel for dinner and the rest of the evening (B, D)

DAY 5, FRIDAY, MAY 7: THESSALONIKI: EXCURSION TO PHILIPPI AND KAVALA

After breakfast, we set out to Philippi, an ancient city built on the Via Egnatia, the Roman road between Rome and Byzantium (today's Istanbul).

In Philippi, Paul preached on European soil for the first time, helping develop a vibrant church there. The New Testament records Paul's visits to the city during his second missionary journey (AD 49 or 50) and on two other occasions in the mid 50's. He later sent at least one letter to the community. Of all the churches Paul founded, probably none was so dear to him as the one in Philippi (Acts 16:9-33).

We celebrate Mass together near the river where St. Lydia is thought to have been baptized by Paul. The first person known to have been baptized in Europe, Lydia brought about the conversion of all her household and provided lodging and support for Paul and his co-missionaries (Acts 16:13-15).

We also visit the ruins of a prison where Paul and Silas were held (Acts 16:23-40), the Agora (with its Theater), and a 5th century Basilica. We gather for our included lunch at a local restaurant in Philippi.

We continue to Kavala for a view of the harbor where Paul would have landed. We return to our hotel in Thessaloniki and get together for Faith Sharing at a private room of our hotel before dinner. (B, L, D)

DAY 6, SATURDAY, MAY 8: THESSALONIKI / VERIA / VERGINA / KALAMBAKA

This morning, after breakfast and checkout, we celebrate Mass at the Holy Cathedral of Immaculate Conception. Then we travel first to Veria, also known as Berea. During the Roman Empire, Veria became a place of worship for the Romans. Within the city there was a Jewish settlement where Paul, after leaving Thessalonica and his companion Silas, preached to the Jewish and Greek communities of the city in AD 50/51 and 54/55. Acts 17 10-15 records:

As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true. Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men. When the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea, they went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up. The brothers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed at Berea. The men who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

Paul returned through the area of Berea during his third missionary journey, and despite the earlier opposition, many of the Bereans were converted. Sopater, one of Paul's traveling companions, was from Berea.

We stop at the site, where tradition holds, Paul stood and delivered his sermons.

After some time for lunch on our own, we continue to Vergina and the Museum of the Royal Tombs. The Royal Tombs were built by the ancient Kingdom of Macedon. The underground museum contains the burial cluster of Philip II of Macedon, and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After our visit, we proceed to our hotel in Kalambaka, situated at the foot of the stunning Meteora peaks. We check into our hotel for dinner and the evening. (B, D)

DAY 7, SUNDAY, MAY 9: KALAMBAKA / ATHENS

This morning after breakfast and check out we visit the breathtaking Greek Orthodox monasteries of Meteora. Derived from the Greek word meteorizome, meaning "to hang in the air," the structures seem to do just that. The complex of monasteries, built in the 13th and 14th centuries, still houses monks and is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site, home of superb icons, old manuscripts, and unique spiritual mosaics and frescoes. After our visit to one of the monasteries, we continue our journey to Athens. Upon arrival in Athens, we join the English-speaking community for the Sunday liturgy at St. Denis Cathedral. After Mass we check in at our hotel for dinner and the rest of the evening. (B, D)

DAY 8, MONDAY, MAY 10: ATHENS / PORT OF LAVRIO / MYKONOS

After breakfast and checkout, we transfer to the port of Lavrio, where we board our waiting ship. Lunch is served on board. Our cruise this afternoon will take us to the island of Mykonos. We celebrate our Mass today on the ship, remembering the journeys of Paul. Upon arrival in Mykonos, we are free to explore this picturesque island. Our dinner is aboard our ship. (B, L, D)

DAY 9, TUESDAY, MAY 11: CRUISE: EPHESUS AND PATMOS

This morning we dock at Kusadasi, Turkey, where we board our motor coach for an included shore excursion to Ephesus. In ancient times, Ephesus was the capital of the Province of Asia [Minor], a very large city with a major harbor. Silt from the local rivers has placed today's shoreline more than four miles west of where it was in Roman times. St. Paul lived in Ephesus around 53-56 AD. While here, he wrote letters to Galatia, Philippi, Corinth, and other early Christian churches. On our shore excursion, we visit the great theatre where St. Paul addressed the crowds (Acts 19:29) and the site of the riot from which Paul escaped. We also visit the ruins of an early 4th century Christian church with a baptistery and bishop's residence. Named the Church of the Virgin Mary, it was the site of the AD 431 Third Ecumenical Council, which named Mary "Theotokos", that is, "God-bearer" or "Mother of God."

Early Christian tradition identified John the Apostle with Ephesus. We visit the Basilica of St. John, built by Justinian in the 6th century, which houses the tomb of St. John. Christian tradition has also associated Ephesus with Mary, mother of Jesus, being cared for by John, "the disciple whom he loved" (John 19:26). We visit the peaceful House of Virgin Mary, believed to be her last residence, sacred to both Christians and Muslims. Here we celebrate Mass.

We return to our ship for lunch and continue our journey to Patmos, often called the Jerusalem of the Aegean. On our included shore excursion we visit the island's Monastery of St. John, dating from the 11th century, and the grotto where tradition says John wrote the Book of Revelation. Back on board our ship, dinner is served. (B, L, D)

DAY 10, WEDNESDAY, MAY 12: CRUISE: RHODES

We arrive in Rhodes this morning, with time to explore the island and its charm. The island sometimes referred to as the Island of the Knights of St. John, who built the medieval town, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Historically, Rhodes was famous worldwide for the Colossus of Rhodes, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. You are free to explore the island on your own or to purchase the optional shore excursion on board. Lunch and dinner are served on board. Mass is celebrated in a room on board. (B, L, D)

DAY 11, THURSDAY, MAY 13: CRUISE: CRETE & SANTORINI

Early this morning we arrive in Crete, where Paul stopped and visited before his death. Titus, a Gentile (Galatians 2:3) who was led to faith in Christ by Paul, was placed by Paul in charge of the church he founded here (Titus 1:12). We can explore the island on our own or purchase an optional shore excursion on board. Our Mass will be celebrated on the ship. After lunch on board, we continue to the port of Santorini, where we have some time on our own to explore this scenic island or purchase an optional shore excursion on board. Dinner is served on board. (B, L, D)

DAY 12, FRIDAY, MAY 14: DISEMBARK IN ATHENS: CORINTH EXCURSION

We arrive in port early this morning to find our motor coach waiting for us. From here, we travel to Corinth, the largest city in the land now known as Greece. Here Paul spent 18 months, preaching to the Jews and Gentiles. The site is overlooked by an Acropolis housing the remains of the Temple of Aphrodite, goddess of love. In Corinth, Paul worked with Aquila and Priscilla and his trial by Gallio took place in the agora. The community he founded here caused him much grief and prompted him to write at least four letters. We celebrate Mass outdoors. We gather at a local restaurant for our lunch. We return to Athens and check in to our hotel. We gather for Faith Sharing at a private room of our hotel before dinner. (B, L, D)

DAY 13, SATURDAY, MAY 15: RETURN TO THE USA

This morning we check out after breakfast and transfer to the airport for our return flight to the USA (B)

Note: While no changes are anticipated, there may be unforeseen occasions when certain alterations become necessary to this itinerary, either due to changes in airline schedules or for other reasons. All Masses are subject to local church schedules and substitution with alternate Mass sites if churches mentioned are not available.

The Traveler agrees not to hold CTC, our suppliers, or the group leaders responsible should they contract any illness during or after their travel.

It is highly recommended Travelers be medically healthy and physically capable of significant walking. CTC tours involve international travel to foreign countries that have different standards of accessibility than U.S. law. Transportation services, which are provided by third parties, as well as visited sites and accommodations, which are not owned, leased, or controlled by CTC, may not be compliant with accessibility standards required by U.S. law. CTC cannot guarantee wheelchair, motorized scooter, or walker accessibility during a trip and does not provide individual assistance to Travelers. If a Traveler requires special individual assistance, the Traveler, not CTC, is responsible for bringing and paying for a capable companion willing to assist the Traveler. CTC assumes no responsibility for Travelers' inability to fully participate in the tour, nor does CTC provide any refund for non-participation in any part of the tour.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: CTC strongly suggests the purchase of Travel Insurance to help protect Travelers' investment in the trip and to help provide medical coverage outside the United States. We also strongly suggest you purchase the broadest coverage available with the least amount of exclusions. Travel Insurance is encouraged because CTC strictly adheres to our Cancellation Policy. Because some travel insurance plans contain time-sensitive benefits for pre-existing conditions, cancel for any reason or for other coverages, we encourage you to do your research and consider purchasing optional travel insurance soon after making your initial tour registration deposit with CTC. CTC is not qualified to answer technical questions about the benefits, exclusions, and conditions of travel insurance plans. CTC cannot evaluate the adequacy of the prospective insured's existing insurance coverage. If you have any questions about your travel protection, call your insurer or insurance agent or broker. Declining to purchase an adequate travel protection plan could result in the loss of your travel cost and/or require more money to correct the situation. You also acknowledge that without this coverage, there may be no way to recoup any losses, costs, or expenses incurred. If you choose to travel without adequate coverage, CTC will not be liable for any of your losses howsoever arising, for which trip protection plan coverage would otherwise have been available.

STATE DEPARTMENT & OTHER AGENCIES' ADVISORIES: The State Department (www.state.gov), the Center for Disease Control (www.cdc.gov), and other government departments and agencies may issue travel advisories or warnings for one or more of the destinations visited on tour, and such advisories or warnings may even be in effect at the time of your registration for this tour. Group administrators, spiritual leaders, and tour leaders likewise expressly disclaim any liability for the acts and/or omissions of any of the above entities and/or individuals not directly under their supervision or control. Please be advised that the liability of carriers as well as providers of hotel and lodging accommodations is limited by law, and Travelers may thus wish to consider purchasing a Travel Protection plan and/or additional insurance to protect themselves against any losses or injuries suffered as a result of their acts and/or omissions. In no event shall CTC's liability exceed the amounts paid by the Traveler for participation in the tour, and subject to the provisions and cancellation fees as set forth in this brochure. In the event the tour leader and/or spiritual director named in a brochure or itinerary does not travel with the group and a substitute is not named therein, CTC reserves the right to make substitutions of its choosing for such person(s). CANCELLATION BY GROUP COORDINATOR/SPIRITUAL LEADER: As CTC does not plan trips for individuals, a cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader effectively cancels the trip for all individuals booked on that trip. The cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader is effective on the date of the cancellation email, fax, or date of postmark. CTC will not be liable for any losses or expenses incurred due to the cancellation or alteration of the tour by your group coordinator and/or spiritual leader and you shall forfeit your $500 per person non-refundable operational fee in the event of any such cancellation.

CANCELLATION BY THE SUPPLIER: CTC will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if a supplier needs to cancel. CTC will also liaise between you and the supplier in relation to any alternative arrangements offered by the supplier, but CTC will have no further liability to you.

CANCELLATION BY CTC: CTC reserves the right to cancel any tour if the minimum number of travelers is not met. In such event, CTC shall refund all amounts paid by Traveler.

CANCELLATION BEYOND CTC's CONTROL: CTC disclaims any responsibility for any losses or expenses incurred due to cancellation or alteration of the tour resulting from, but not limited to: travel advisories or warnings issued by the State Department or any other relevant authority, acts of war, terrorism, acts of God, natural disasters, pandemic, or any other circumstance beyond CTC's control. In such case, CTC will assist Travelers in requesting refunds for all land and air services not received by the Traveler, less a non-refundable operational fee of $500 per person, that covers all trip planning and refund processing. CTC shall not be responsible for any non-recoverable amounts disbursed to service providers on a Traveler's behalf. Suppliers may choose to provide a travel voucher or credit in lieu of refund. CTC is not responsible for a supplier's failure to pay a refund or for supplier bankruptcy or insolvency.

POLICY AGAINST DISCRIMINATION: CTC does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam or other veteran in the provision of its tour and pilgrimage services.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS ONLY REGISTERED SELLER: Catholic Travel Centre is a registered Seller of Travel in the State of California: CST#: 2018667-40. "Registration as a Seller of Travel does not constitute approval by the State of California." Section 17550.24(f). CTC subscribes to the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. Non-residents of California are not eligible to make claims to this fund. A claim must be submitted to the TCRF within 12 months after the scheduled completion date of travel. For more information, visit www.tcrinfo.org. In accordance with California law, CTC has a trust account to protect Traveler's purchase money.

FLORIDA SELLER OF TRAVEL: Fla. Seller of Travel Ref. No. ST43075.

JURISDICTION/VENUE/CLASS ACTION WAIVER/LIMITATION OF DAMAGES/ NOTICE OF CLAIM: These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California without regard to conflict of law principles. Any dispute arising from the contract shall be litigated in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Los Angeles. You agree you will only bring claims against CTC in your individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class action or representative proceeding. CTC shall not in any case be liable for other than compensatory damages, and your payment of a deposit on a trip means you agree to these conditions of sale and expressly waive any right to punitive damages. You understand and agree no claims will be considered and you will not bring suit against CTC unless you have first provided a typewritten notice of claim to CTC within 30 days after the trip or cancellation of the trip.

TERMS & CONDITIONS CHANGES: Changes in any of the Terms & Conditions can be made only in writing signed by an officer of CTC.

FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS ONLY: Upon cancellation of the transportation or travel services, where the passenger is not at fault and has not canceled in violation of any terms and conditions previously clearly and conspicuously disclosed and agreed to by the passenger, all sums paid to CTC for services not provided will be promptly paid to the passenger, unless the passenger advises the CTC in writing, after cancellation. This provision does not apply where CTC has remitted the payment to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier, without obtaining a refund, and where the wholesaler or provider defaults in providing the agreed-upon transportation or service. In this situation, CTC must provide the passenger with a written statement accompanied by bank records establishing the disbursement of the payment, and if disbursed to a wholesale seller of travel, proof of current registration of that wholesaler.
